

EFF's New FIP/Copper 90 Degree Ball Valve

EFF's new patent pending angled ball valve is a revolutionary way to save both installation time and extra fittings, ultimately saving you both time and money. Designed for use on a variety of applications including Water Meters, Commercial Water Heaters/Boilers, Fan Coils, & Radiant Baseboard Systems.

Available in: $\frac{3}{4}$ " and 1" PEX, Copper Sweat and FIP in both equal and reducing configurations.

Learn More at CMPX Booth # 111